My Little Dog Wolf

I have a little dog. His name is Wolf. He is a good dog. He lives in a little house. This little house is a doghouse. It is small and nice. It is green.

One day Wolf says, "I want to run, I want to play."

And he runs out of his house. He runs in the street and meets two little kittens.

"Bow-bow," he says. The little kittens run away from him. Wolf runs after them. "Bow-bow," he says. "This is good. I am big. The little kittens are afraid of me. They run away from me."

Wolf is happy. He runs and runs. He meets five little chicks.

"Bow-bow," he says. The little chicks run away from him. Wolf runs after them. "Bow-bow," he says. "This is good. I am big. The little chicks are afraid of me. They run away from me."

And Wolf runs and runs. He meets Mother Hen.

"Bow-bow," he says. But Mother Hen does not run away from him. She runs after him. "Bow-bow," says Wolf. "This is not good. I am not very big. Mother Hen is not afraid of me.".

And Wolf does not want to run and play anymore. He only wants to come back home to his doghouse.

Now Wolf lives in his green doghouse, and now he is happy!
